DORMITORY ROOF ON AT COLLEGE

GETTING THINGS READY FOR THE CAFETERIA.

MANUAL ARTS FURNITURE

Prof. E. W. Glenn Has Had Vocational Students Making Tables and Dressers This Summer.

The roof on the new dormitory at the State Teachers College has been finished and the brick work is practically completed. A complete set of dishes and a new cash register has been purchased for the cafeteria and if possible this will be opened and ready for use at the opening of the fall term of school, although it will be somewhat later when the rooms of the dormitory are ready for occupancy.

All through the spring and summer, while the bricklayers and laborers with their hoisting machinery have been busy bringing into existence the huge dormitory building, another phase of the work has been going steadily on inside the College building. The other phase is that of making dressers and study tables for the rooms of the dormitory.

Prof. E. W. Glenn, head of the department of manual arts at the College, has had six vocational students of the United States government getting practical training in this work. He has also had a number of the advanced students in t he department on the job. Eighty of the dressers are being made and will be placed one in a room. Each of the dressers has four large drawers and four smaller ones. It will mean that each of the girls in a room will have two large drawers and two smaller ones for her clothing. The top of the dressers will, of course, be used by the two in partnership and for their combination art gallery and drug store.

The tables are to be placed two in a room, one for each girl. There will be 160 of them in all. They are 20x36 inches and are provided with a book rack. The door to the bath rooms opening out of the separate rooms, will be provided with a long mirror. The tables and dressers are made out of birch and will be finished in mahogany to match the finish of the rooms.

The work on the dressers and tables has been suspended for a vacation at the College now. Professor Glenn says that he lacks a sander to smooth the wood off with and that it will not arrive for some time. Early in September it will be here and several of the vocational students will return to school to continue with the work. The boys will be back from ten to fourteen days before the opening of the fall term.

The expense of the dressers and tables is being cut in approximately half by having it done by the students and it is offering them the practice that they need to become efficient cabinet makers.

'FAKE' MONEY-ORDER CONSPIRACY CHARGED

J. Lieber Holmes of Denver Was Arrested Last Thursday in That City

The following is taken from Friday's Denver Times about the arrest of J. Lieber Holmes of that city, a former Maryville boy:

Arrested late Thursday on a charge of conspiring to defraud the United States government of approximately $2,300, John Lieber Holmes, 25 years old, gave bond in the sum of $1,500 and was released pending action by the next federal grand jury.

According to information given out at the federal district attorney's office, it is charged that Holmes induced Louis E. Walborn, former postmaster at Fitzsimmons military hospital, to permit him to make "fake" requests for money orders. The cash thus realized, it is charged, was divided between Holmes and Walborn. The latter was arrested several days ago and charged with embezzlement.

Holmes was arrested by Deputy United States Marshal James Gibbens in a downtown rooming house. He was accompanied to the office of United States Commissioner Robert E. Foot, before whom he was arraigned, by his father, O. L. Holmes, of Maryville, Mo. Bond was arranged thru a surety company.

KANRED PRODUCES BEST YIELD WHEAT

IN EXPERIMENT AT COLLEGE FULCASTER IS SECOND

SWEDISH BEST OATS

Legume a Good Manure—Spring Wheat Yield Low—Some Kanrad to Sell

Experiments carried on during the last year at the State Teachers College farm in small grains was completed last week with the finishing of the threshing. The experiments were on production under different treatment of the soil and with different kinds of grains. Where the tests were for soil treatment the same variety was used throughout and where it was for variety the same kind of soil was used as nearly as possible throughout.

In the soil treatment experiments it was found that wheat with a treatment of manure and rock phosphate made the highest yield, with a treatment of a leguminous crop second and a treatment of a leguminous crop and bone meal in third place. The experiment shows that a yield following legumes will be larger if no bone mea is applied.

In the soil experiment on oats the largest yield was obtained when bone and potash was placed on ground which had been in a leguminous crop, while rock potash produced the second highest yield and a leguminous crop and a treatment of bone meal produced the third highest.

As to variety tests in wheat Kanred made the largest yield and Fulcaster the second largest.

In oats Swedish select held first place with Burt in second.

Manchuria barley made the largest crop, and the common rye beat the Rosen variety. This experiment tends to set aside the argument that the Rosen is the best but Prof. W. W. Stanfield, who is in charge of the farm, says that the stand of Rosen was not as good as it might have been.

In the experiment on Hessian fly seven plots were sown, one a week from September 17 to October 29. The plot sowed October 1 made the heaviest yield, that sown September 24 the second and the one sown October 8 the third. The plot sown October 29 made a heavier yield than the one sown on September 17.

Following are the yields an acre under soil treatment:

Wheat.

Legume—35.60.
Legume and bone meal—34.29.
No treatment—32.66.
Legume, bone meal and potash—33.58.
Legume, bone meal, potash and lime—33.37.
Legume and rock phosphate—31.87.
No treatment—30.71.
Rock phosphate—32.71.
Manure—33.75.
Manure and rock phosphate—39.37.

Oats.

Legume—42.85.
Legume and bone meal—55.62.
No treatment—48.11.
Legume, bone meal and potash—61.56.
Legume, bone meal, potash and lime—53.83.
Rock phosphate and legume—54.77.
No treatment—52.03.
Rock phosphate—56.87.
Manure—54.53.
Manure and rock phosphate—53.20.

Following are the results of the experiments with the various varieties of grains, showing the yield an acre:

EDWIN M. WHITNEY A PLEASING READER

GAVE YESTERDAY ONE OF BEST PROGRAMS EVER PLAYED HERE.

$100 OVER GUARANTEE

Large Crowds Attending—Junior Town Organized—Rain Last Night Sent Some Home Early.

Tomorrow's Program.

2:30 p. m.—Vocal picnic, All College Glee Club, followed by Miss Edna Means.

8:00 p. m.—Gorgeous entertainment by Black-Faced Minstrels.

H. C. Todd, chairman of the guarantors of the chautauqua, said this morning that the sale of tickets by the workers of Maryville will amount to more than $1,900, a hundred dollars more than the amount of the guarantee.

Edwin M. Whitney gave yesterday afternoon one of the most interesting and pleasing chautauqua programs that Maryville has ever seen when he read "The Fortune Hunters." He was advertised as being a whole show in himself and he certainly was. One of the best authorities on reading in Maryville said this morning that hearing Mr. Whitney alone was worth the price of a season ticket to the chautauqua.

In "The Fortune Hunter" there are twelve characters and Mr. Whitney represented them in all their different parts, characters and voice. Short, concise explanations thrown in at the beginning of each of the four acts made one see the setting in his mind and the movement of the actors almost the same as if there had been twelve persons on the stage.

Hon. Robert G. Cousins gave Saturday night a lecture on "The Grim Glory and Cost of Flags." He has a good delivery and a wonderful amount of facts at the tip of his tongue regarding the events that have taken place in the world in the centuries past. His lecture, however, was long enough that it became a little tiresome to a part of the audience.

The Mitchell Bros. furnished music both Saturday afternoon and evening and were well-liked and much complimented by the audience.

A melodious prelude was furnished yesterday afternoon by the Dio Giorgio Orchestra and in the evening this same organization gave a grand concert in two parts, between which Mr. Graham of the Redpath-Vawter Company gave a talk on the benefits of the chautauqua. The numbers by the orchestra were rather varied as to quality. Some however, were especially good. At one time the violinist broke a string on her instrument but continued the selections as though nothing had happened.

The crowds attending the program of the chautauqua are large ones. The tent is practically filled to capacity for the evening performances and it was full yesterday afternoon. Owing to the rain last night most of the crowd left early.

The Junior Town has been organized under Miss Mary McLean and is giving the children a lot of joy.

FROM TWO STATES AT BARNARD CLINICS

ONE CHILD FROM ATLANTA, GA., PRESENT

AT ELMO PICNIC TOO

Health Department Will Also Have Rest Room and Clinics at Ravenwood Celebration

Children from ten towns in Missouri and Atlanta, Ga., were represented in the two days that Dr. Claude P. Fryer, county health officer and Mrs. Grace Bean, county health nurse, held health clinic in the rest rooms which they had at the Barnard picnic last week. Fifty-five children were examined during two days and recommendations made to mothers, fathers, step-mothers, aunts and foster parents.

The first day of the clinic twenty-three children were examined and on the second day thirty-two. Of the thirty-two children which were examined on the last day thirteen were infants, ten school children and nine pre-school children.

Dr. Fryer and Mrs. Bean are especially interested in the children who who will begin their school work this fall and want to examine them and make the recommendations to the parents as soon as they can so that the proper corrections can be made before the children start school. Out of the ten school children examined at Barnard Saturday it was found that there were nineteen defects which should be corrected. Defects which were the most numerous were enlarged tonsils and adenoids and underweight. There is plenty of time between now and school time to correct these defects. Other defectc are overweight, hearing and defective teeth.

The clinic which is scheduled for today at Elmo will not be held because the health department will be at Elmo tomorrow conducting the rest room for the three days picnic. Dr. Fryer went to Elmo this morning to make arrangements for a place on the grounds to erect the rest room. Because the health department will be at Elmo during the next three days, Clearmont, Wilcox and Skidmore will not have any clinic this week.

The health department will have a rest room at the Ravenwood picnic this year.

Towns which had children represented at the clinics at Barnard during the three days of the picnic were; Rosendale, Bolckow, Guilford, Barnard, Skidmore, Maryville, Stanberry, King City, Cameron, Conception Junction and Atlanta, Ga.

PRESIDENT ASKING STRIKERS TO WORK

JEWELL AND NOONAN BELIEVE COMPROMISE IN SIGHT.

BIG FOUR BALLOTING

Chicago and Alton Announce That Several Trains Will Be Cancelled August 10.

Washington, Aug. 7.—President Harding today called upon the striking railroad workers to return to work immediately pending a decision of the railroad labor board on the question of seniority rights. B. M. Jewell, chairman of the six federated shop crafts unions, and J. P. Noonan of the electrical workers said they believed the basis of the compromise is in sight. The strike leaders went into conference among themselves this afternoon to discuss the details of the proposal.

Indianapolis, Aug. 7—Fourteen hundred employes of the Big Four including telegraph operators and station agents are taking a strike ballot and probably will strike this week, it was announced today. Being unable to reach agreement on working condition was given as the reason for the strike.

Bloomington, Ill., Aug. 7—The Chicago and Alton announced today a number of passenger trains will be cancelled between Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City, owing to shortage of coal. The cancellation is effective August 10. The road has less than a week's fuel supply.

Joliet, Ill., Aug. 7—One officer and a striker were killed and the sheriff of New Kirkland, Wills County is near death in a hospital and probably a score of others were wounded in a pitched battle at the outskirts of Joliet today. Philip Reitz, chief detectives of the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern Railroad, and an unidentified striker, are dead.

The battle occurred when a mob between 1,000 and 1,500 surrounded a former union man who had returned to work.

The city authorities appealed to Springfield for troops. Many members of the mob bleeding from bullets fired by officers were assisted by friends in leaving the scene.

37 KILLED IN RAILROAD WRECK AT SULPHUR SPRINGS

Is Most Horrible That Has Occurred in Country for Number of Years —Cause Is Unknown.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug 7—Thirty-seven are dead and nearly a hundred are injured as the result of a rear end crash on the Missouri Pacific railway at Sulphur Springs, Mo., Saturday night. Many of the injured are in critical condition in hospitals here and it is feared they may die.

The wreck was the most horrifying in the history of the state and one of the worst disasters that has occurred in the country for many years. Three investigations are being gotten under way. The coroner's inquest will be conducted at DeSoto today, the railroad is planning to investigate at Poplar Bluff and the Missouri Public Service commission is planning a third probe. One presumption that is freely made as to the cause is that Engineer Glenn of the traveling train passed signal blocks before the crash came without noticing them.

Officials of the road are silent, Glenn was killed in the wreck.

Fireman Tinsley of the Flyer, who jumped before the crash is lying seriously injured at a hospital here. He says today that he cannot understand how the accident happened unless Engineer Glenn ran by a red order board. The fireman, who jumped down an incline, remembers the engineer shouting a warning over the head of the boiler.

FIND LOREN WOMACK DID NOT DISTURB PEACE

Dispute Was Over Whether or Not Clothes Line Would be Tied to A Certain Tree

Loren Womack was found not guilty to a charge of disturbing the peace in police court this afternoon by a jury of five men. Mrs. Nellie McClarnon was the prosecuting witness and the trouble came out of a clothes line which was fastened on a tree on a disputed boundary between the home of the two parties.

The clothes line was fastened to a tree and while Mrs. McClarnon was away from home last Thursday, Mr. Womack unfastened the line and let it drop off of his property. Mrs. McClarnon claimed that it was on her porch when she came home in the evening and that when she went out on the porch she stumbled over the line and fell and rebroke her thumb.

The evidence tended to show that she took the line and replaced it on the tree talking while she replaced it, saying that if Womack took it down again she would call the sheriff.

Womack and his wife were eating supper and he told Mrs. McClarnon that he wanted her to get off of his property and to stay off. Later he took the wire down again and Mrs. McClarnon claimed that he used vile language. Mr. and Mrs. Womack testified that Womack did not use vile language.

T. A. Cummins was attorney for the prosecution and W. G. Sawyers was attorney for the defendant. The jury was C. D. Allen, T. J. Parle, Aaron Souers, Ed Hamlin, L. C. Gann and Fred Rogers.

BOYS CONFRONTED BY LAW AFTER OTHER BAD LUCK

Were Kept in Maryville Yesterday Morning While Sheriff Made Sure They Were not Thieves

Three boys stopped in Maryville for a short time one day last week with their motor cycles tied to the side of a Ford racer. They were on their way to Bedford to race at the fair. They had bad luck at the races, burning out the barings on one of the machines and having some other kind of bad luck with the other. They then started back to St. Joseph, where they lived. On the way down they were caught in the rain several miles north of Maryville. They slid into the ditch. A kindly farmer helped pull them out and they came on.

When they got to Maryville they were broke and hungry. They decided to sell one of the spare casings to get some money for something to eat. They made the sale and the purchaser went on away. Just then the farmer who pulled them out of the mud drove into town an dsaid that he was short a casing for his car and that he believed that the boys had gotten it. Sheriff Steve Roach was called and the boys were told to wait. The sheriff got in touch with the man who had purchased the tire and it was found that it was not the one the farmer had lost.

The boys with a little food under their belts and proof that they were all right went on their way to St. Joseph.

Otis Faulconer of Clearmont transacted business in Maryville today.

OASIS IN ARIZONA DESERT

What Has Been Done to Make Ajo, for Centuries an Arid Spot, "Blossom Like the Rose."

West of the Santa Cruz and south of the Gila in Arizona the territory is generally an irreclaimable desert. Its mountains, however, abound in rich ore of gold, silver and copper. At the celebrated mine, the New Cornelia Copper company has created in the midst of this arid district a garden spot with atractive and artistic houses of mission architecture, and broad avenues lined with palms. This has been accomplished by providing a million gallons of water a day, which is pumped from a 700-foot well eight miles from town. The history of mining in the district is full of the romance of the West, the copper deposit there having been first worked by the Spaniards and Mexicans 200 years before the Gadsden purchase. According to A. W. Allen, writing in Engineering and Mining Journal-Press, it was only after long experimentation that a process adaptable to the treatment of complex ores was evolved. The operating company provides a school and hospital for benefit of its employees and also runs a profit-sharing store. The camp is connected with the railroads of the country by a branch of the El Paso and Southwestern railroad. The mining claims and the mill sites cover an area of 2,854 acres. The property affords a striking and unusual example of what American industrial management can accomplish under adverse climatic and geographical conditions.

KNEW OF HEART'S FUNCTIONS

Papyrus Proves That Ancient Egyptian Physicians Were Fully Conversant With Important Organ.

Egyptian physicians in the days of the Hebrew patriarchs knew the heart is the center of a system, throughout which its pulsations are felt. They performed operations, made diagnoses, catalogued cases and verdicts, and pursued investigations in a scientific spirit, according to a study of the Edward Smith papyrus made by Prof. J. H. Breasted of the University of Chicago.

Professor Breasted declared the ancient document lay in a coffin for "some three and a half millenniums." Pointing out that it was discovered by an American, Edwin Smith, the Chicago orientalist asserted it contained "incomparably the most important body of medical knowledge which has survived to us from the ancient Orient anywhere."

The passage about the heart reads in part: "There is in it (the heart) a canal leading to every member of the body. Concerning these, if the physician places the fingers on the back of the head, on the hands, on the pulse, on the legs, he discovers the heart, for the heart leads to every member and it beats in the canals of every member."

Wild Horses of Sable Island.

Ever since the dismal failure to colonize Sable island in the Gulf of the St. Lawrence, when Canada was New France, there have been a few domestic animals on that bleak spot, relics of that ill-fated attempt. Some horses were among them, probably survivors of shipwrecks, for Sable island is a dangerous place and bears the name of the Graveyard of the Gulf, from the number of gallant ships which found their end thereabouts. The horses multiplied and developed into a rough hardy little breed of ponies.

More than one hundred of these wild native ponies perished during the last winter, the government steamer, Lady Laurier, reported the other day when she arrived from a trip to the Atlantic graveyard. The covering of the island grass by drifting snow during a stormy winter was declared responsible for the deaths. It is likely that another such winter will put an end to this unique little horse colony.

Detroit Has a Kite Day.

Kite day has become an annual event in Detroit. So popular has it become that competitors in the events of the seventh annual kite day in May were divided into two sections. Those who live east of Woodward avenue floated their kites in Pingree park and those who live west competed in Woodward park. The East side contest was particularly thrilling because it was participated in by Chinese, Korean and Filipino boys. Oriental peoples are the most expert makers and flyers of kites in the world, according to the Survey. This fascinating sport with them originally had an important ritual significance.

SAW WITH PROPHETIC VISION

Toronto Man's Remarkable Prediction of Wireless Telephony Made Many Years Ago.

A remarkable imaginative prediction of wireless telephony was made by Grant Balfour (J. M. Grant) of Toronto in a thiologue which appeared in an English magazine in 1889, and was afterward reproduced in a pamphlet entitled "Bahrak-Kohl," two Hebrew words, meaning the voice of the lightning. The characters of this little treatise were represented as in the neighborhood of the Jordan.

"The prophet now took from his girdle," says the narrative, "a small instrument resembling a trumpet for the deaf. Coming down to Mohammed, he asked him to turn his right side toward the southland, to put the broad end of the instrument to his right ear. The prophet then inquired where his home was.

"'My home,' replied Mohammed, 'is in the extreme south of Arabia, 1,400 miles away.'

"'Listen now,' said the prophet; 'dost thou hear the sound of waves?'

"I do," replied the sheik. 'Where may they be?'

"'These waves,' answered the prophet, 'are the waves of the Indian ocean breaking upon the Arabian shore.'"

Further describing the instrument, the prophet said: "The thing before thee is but a rude pattern in part of the coming needed device of man. No such device is required by a prophet of the Lord to entrust the lightning with a message. The prophet speaks, nay, he needs but to will, and it is done."—Toronto Globe.

HAS BIG LEAD IN VOLCANOES

United States Can "Boast" of More Than a Quarter of Those Known to Be Active.

Uncle Sam owns more than a quarter of the active volcanoes of the world, the report that two more have been born in Alaska making the grand total 106.

There are 61 smoking peaks in Alaska and the Aleutian islands and many more in western United States, Hawaii and the Philippines. It is likely, however, if many of the so-called vents of the Mount Katmai region of Alaska would be classed as volcanoes this country could boast of the majority of the old earth's skin troubles—an unenviable record.

There are 417 active volcanoes on the globe that have been located to date.

There are numerous peaks in the Philippine islands not sufficiently well known to establish whether they are volcanoes or smoke pots or vents. In Alaska there are hundreds of vents from which constantly issue steam and smoke, but which are not called volcanoes.

An occasional volcano bursts forth from the sea near the Aleutian islands, but finally succumbs to the flood of sea water.

Work in Madagascar Compulsory.

All idle persons in Madagascar must work or pay a tax for the privilege of living an unproductive life. As the end of the war released thousands of native troops, the colonial government has decided that something must be done to check idleness, especially as there is plenty of work for all comers. A decree just published insists that every European sound of limb must work at least 250 days a year up to the age of fifty, but natives are not compelled to work more than 180 days. Of course, anyone with a private fortune can be exempted, but that will cost 25 francs per diem for leisure. All "oisif" taxes will be used to buy agricultural machinery and tools for the development of the island's resources. The aged and crippled will receive a small salary to seek out evaders of the new regulation. "Oisifs" are the equivalent in French for "lounge lizards."

Too Bad! Too Bad!

This is the story told by a New Orleans gentleman attending the foreign trade convention: A steamship arriving from a French port had an enterprising officer who saw a fine opportunity to profit through the dry condition of the United States. He put in a large stock of liquor, and when the vessel arrived in New Orleans had no trouble in getting in touch with purchasers. They agreed to pay on delivery.

The price was $3,000. The liquor was passed over the ship's side in the middle of the night on to a small vessel alongside and the $3,000 given to the officer. The next day the seller went to the bank to buy French exchanges. A few minutes later he was doing two things at one time—tearing his hair and swearing like a trooper. His $3,000 was Confederate money.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Boiling Points of Metals.

For a long time the boiling points of metals were not very accurately ascertained. Not so long ago Greenwood undertook a new investigation of the subject and he gives the following results for certain well-known metals:

Aluminum, 1,800 degrees centigrade; copper, 2,310 degrees centigrade; iron, 2,450 degrees centigrade; and tin, 2,270 degrees centigrade.

Forumettes

You may seek high and low
But you never will find a
Town or a thing on this Earth that is just right.

There are some men in Maryville so given to splitting hairs that they can see the difference between tweedledum and tweedledee.

Have you ever noticed that nobody's business is everybody's business?

As far as we can observe the only ones pleased with the return of long skirts are the skinny girls.

We can all remember the time when the city authorities thought they had a serious problem in regulating the bicycle traffic, such as preventing the cyclists riding on the sidewalks, and to force them to carry lights at night.

Did you ever see the candle they are always talking about being burned at both ends?

The average man keeps his religion in his wife's name as he regards it safer there.

It is what you haven't got and not what you have which makes the difference. For example some girls struggle just as hard to get unmarried as they did to get married.

Uncle Abner, the town philosopher, says you can always do better than you are doing if you just will.

Another sign of waning summer—Fall hats appearing in the windows of millinery stores.

Our stenographer wants the awnings along Maryville streets raised. She says she ruins her hats by bumping into them.

Imagine the mortification of a coast-to-coast tourist with signs and pennants of many towns plastered all over his car when some traffic cop bawls him out in this fashion "Say hick, can't you see the semaphore?" as we heard one do the other day.

More inconsistencies—We saw a man on the street the other day who wore Rudolph Valentino sideburns who was laughing at the women's styles.

Louise, the stenographer, says she can't understand why some Maryville people always seem in such a great hurry when you consider they do not know where they are going.

Vagrant Musings

Wonder who was the wag who put the word "obey" in the marriage ceremony!

It takes a generous man to laugh at his own expense.

When normalcy gets back she will be so changed we will not recognize her.

Money may talk but it certainly has an impediment in speech.

Have you ever seen the man as "honest as the day is long."

Famous Last Words

"I believe I can get across the crossing before the train does."

Curiosity Gets Miss Margaret Remus A Picture

They say that curiousity is woman's failing, but it does not always mean failure. Miss Margaret Remus insists that it pays.

During Governor Hyde's recent visit at the college to deliver the annual commencement address the camera hounds were in evidence as usual. One requested that the Governor and W. C. Pierce of Maryville pose for him in front of the building. "Peggy," in order to get a better view of the executive, stepped outside the door.

Now, our Peggy is the proud possessor of a copy of the picture autographed "Miss Peggy Remus, with much gratitude for lending beauty to the scene. Arthur M. Hyde, W. C. Pierce."

Power Farming and Petroleum Products

LABOR and power represent 80 to 90 percent of the total cost of producing farm products.

This portion of the cost is reduced by the use of motor-driven machinery which enables each man to cultivate more acres and to cultivate each acre more cheaply.

The following figures, made on authority of the International Harvester Company prove the correctness of this statement.

1921 COSTS—DISCING

Double Discing (8-ft. disc) with horses—15 miles travel per day, costs 85c per acre.
Double Discing (8-ft. disc) with 10-20 tractor—20 miles travel per day costs 66c per acre.
(A saving of 22.3%)

1921 COSTS—DRILLING

Drilling with horses—15 miles travel per day; costs 53c per acre.
Drilling with 10-20 tractor—25 miles travel per day; costs 26c per acre. (A saving of 51%)

1921 COSTS—HARVESTING

4 horses with an 8-ft. grain binder can harvest an average of 15 acres a day at 65c an acre.
1 kerosene tractor with 2 8-ft. binders can harvest an average of 40 acres a day at 50c an acre.
(A saving of 23%)

The increasing use of motor-driven machinery on the farm indicates that the practical farmer has come to realize that the use of such equipment is profitable.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) in its endeavor to furnish a complete cycle of service is delivering its products to the farmer under the same conditions as for similar deliveries in the town.

Such service is possible only because of the complete system of distribution which has been developed throughout the 11 Middle Western States served by this Company.

Only a great enterprise, permanently organized, adequately financed, and inspired by a high sense of its social responsibilities could guarantee the farmer, and all those who consume farm products, that all essential needs for petroleum products will be cared for.

There was a display of fireworks in the evening. The races for motor cars were won by two Dodge Bros. machines, one of which was from New Falls.

Produce Review

Butter production has been heavier than during the corresponding period last year. There has been little change in prices throughout the producing sections. Demand for current consumption continues good, although some surplus is finding its way to storage.

Egg receipts are above normal and are somewhat in excess of the supply required for current use, the surplus being placed in storage. The stocks in cold storage are unusually large for this season of the year. The lower prices prevailing, if passed along to the consumer, should bring about a better demand.

Ample poultry for current use, is being marketed and as spring chickens reach the marketing age, the movement will undoubtedly increase, resulting in some decline in buying and selling prices.

JOHN THOMPSON HAS CONTRACT WITH MOTION PICTURE FIRM

Will Be Employed Here at Barber Profession But Temporarily

John Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Thompson, who arrived in Maryville this week-end to begin work in the Tulloch barbershop has a two year contract with the Szelneck motion picture company and is here only while waiting for the concern to call him to go to work in the motion picture work.

Mr. Thompson's work will be in the production of pictures similar to the Hardold Lloyd pictures. He got his contract with this company through a friend of his who is working in the picture production and who was in Casper, Wyo., when the young people of the town put on a motion picture ball and each immitated their favorite picture star. Mr. Thompson immitated Harold Lloyd to such an extent that the friend got him interested in the motion picture game.

Mr. Thompson does not know when he will be called to fill his contract. He expects to spend some time in Hollywood in preparatory training before actually entering the pictures. He has had experience on the legitimate stage.

BIG CORN CROP ON FARMS OF WHITE CLOUD PIONEER

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clayton Came to Community in 1869—Retired a Few Months Ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clayton returned this morning to Maryville after spending a week at their farms ten miles south and two miles west of Maryville. Mr. Clayton has two farms of 160 acres each. His son, J. W. Clayton, lives on one and Marvin Keller lives on the other. On the two farms there is about one hundred acres of corn and Mr. Clayton says that he believes that it will make sixty bushels to the acre.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton came to Missouri and to Nodaway County in 1869, four years after they were married at Philadelphia. After leaving the East their first stop was in Illinois, where they remained for two years. When they arrived in Nodaway County they went at once to the prairies, where their farms now lie. They were the first settlers in the vicinity on that side of the White Cloud and there were not many shacks on the prairies. Mr. Clayton says that he always bought land just as he had the money to pay for it, never going in debt. The first land he purchased was for the price of $5.25 an acre. Some years later he had to pay $40 an acre for some.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton were married 57 years last March. In spite of their age both are active folks. They lived on the farm now occupied by Mr. Keller until a few months ago, when they decided to retire and move into Maryville. They are now living on West Third street.

Mr. Clayton takes a great interest in his farms and in what goes on on them and says that he will never sell a foot of his land as long as he lives.

MANY PEOPLE HEARD BREWSTER AT BARNARD

Other Speakers were Dr. O. L. Curl, W. G. Sawyers and Judge J. M. Dawson

A considerable portion of the crowd of 5,000 persons at the Barnard picnic Saturday afternoon heard the speech of R. R. Brewster, Republican candidate for United States senator, and the other political speakers.

Dr. O. L. Curl, Republican candidate for prosecuting attorney, was the first speaker. Dr. Curl stressed the necessity of law enforcement at this time of wide-spread crime and lawlessness.

Mr. Brewster was the next speaker. He based his talk on the preamble of the constitution of the American Legion. He emphasized that the people of the United States should vote at the primaries, as at all other elections, if the government is to be representative of the people. He would have a greater participation in affairs of the government by everyone. He advocated the wiping out of all mob violence and the doing away with the lines of sectionalism. He would have neither, East, West, North nor South. Let them all be one and that one America.

W. G. Sawyers, Democratic candidate for prosecuting attorney, was the next speaker. He said that the trouble in America is in the home and brought out that the children should have better care and attention.

Judge John M. Dawson, candidate for re-election to the circuit court, was the last speaker. Judge Dawson said that two of the most important duties of an American is that of voting at elections and serving on juries when called.

The Republican speakers were introduced by John A. Fields and the Democratic speakers by M. L. Griggs.

BRINGS SUIT AGAINST MILAN FOR $10,000

Suit Grew Out of Death of Father Jermain Through Contact With Electric Wire.

(Chillicothe Constitution).

Probably one of the most important cases ever filed in North Missouri was filed Saturday at Milan for the September term of circuit court of Sullivan county. This suit is filed by Rose Jermain, executrix of the estate of Rev. John J. Jermain, deceased vs. the City of Milan for the sum of $10,000, on account of the death of Rev. John J. Jermain on July 9, 1922, which occurred about 11:15 p. m. of that date. Father Jermain was for many years a pastor of the Catholic church of Milan and was electrocuted by a live wire across the side walk in that city near his home. While he was on his way home he came in contact with an electric wire on sidewalk which had fallen to the walk some time before. It is alleged in the petition that the City of Milan owns and maintains the electric light plant in that city and had carelessly permitted said charged wire to be and remain on the sidewalk after due notice had been given to the city of its dangerous position. Father Jermain, it is alleged, was on the wire and alive calling for help for fifty minutes before the city shut off the current.

Father Jermain was one of the best known priests of Northwest Missouri and his death was a shock to the entire community of Milan, where he was well liked by both Catholic and non-Catholics and where he was erecting a $50,000 church at the time of his death. He was buried at Conception.

Miss Rose Jermain, the plaintiff, is represented by Attorneys Davis & Ashby of Chillicothe and Maurice P. Murphy of St. Joseph.

Missouri Grain Prices.

Missouri farmers are receiving lower prices for wheat and oats and slightly more for corn than in June. The state average price for wheat is 96 cents per bushel against $1.04 in July of 1921. Quotations range from 86 cents per bushel in Lawrence to $1.30 in Wayne and generally the lowest prices are being paid in those counties off the railroad lines.

Corn averages 69 cents per bushel compared to 62 cents last year, with the lowest paid in St. Louis, Scott and Werth counties at 50 cents and the highest in Camden at $1.25. Prices are highest generally in those counties remote from the railroads.

Oats average 43 cents per bushel against 33 cents in 1921, with the lowest quotation in Worth at 28 cents and the highest in Montgomery at 80 cents.

The following shows the prices paid on July 15, 1922, for wheat, corn and oats in Nodaway County, as compiled by E. A. Logan and Jewell Mayes of the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service: Wheat $1.02 per bushel; corn 62 cents per bushel, and oats 35 cents per bushel.

ROADS STAND BY LOYAL EMPLOYEES

Tell President Harding Old and New Men Must be Protected in Strike Settlement.

NOT A MATTER OF CHOICE

Faithful Employees Have Both Legal and Moral Rights to Seniority and Other Benefits.

New York, Aug. 2.—The keynote of the reply made by railway executives representing more than 180 class 1 railroads of the United States to the proposition of President Harding, that "all strikers be returned to their work and their former positions with seniority and other rights unimpaired" lies in the last paragraph from their reply to the President as follows:

"It is submitted that the striking former employes cannot be given preference to employes at present in the service without doing violence to every principle of right and justice involved in this matter, and without the grossest breach of faith on the part of the railroads to the men at present in their service.

"Under these circumstances, it becomes apparent that the railroads cannot consider any settlement of the present strike which does not provide protection in their present employment both to the loyal employes who remained in the service and to the new employes entering it."

The executives had accepted the first two conditions proposed by the President, namely, that both employers and employees accept the decision of the labor board, and that all lawsuits growing out of the strike be withdrawn; and in relation to the third condition, spoke not only as quoted above, but also as follows:

Agree With the President.

"The railroad executives and managers agree entirely with the President's statement in his letter that it is wholly unthinkable that the railroad labor board can be made a useful agency of the government in maintaining industrial peace in the railway service unless employers and worker are both prompt and unquestioning in their acceptance of its decisions.

"Many men in the service refused to join the strike and in so doing were assured of the seniority rights accruing to them and of the permanency of their positions. On some important lines 50 per cent or more refused to join the strike. To these old loyal employees have been added thousands of new men who were employed and could be secured only upon a definite promise that their services would be retained regardless of the settlement of the strike, with all the rights appertaining to such employment, including that of seniority under the working rules and regulations previously approved by the railroad labor board.

"Just the Opposite Effect."

"We especially point out that a refusal to the old men who remained in the service and to the new men who accepted service of the rights of seniority incident to their employment would have just the opposite effect desired by the President, and would most seriously discredit the labor board.

"The board itself prescribed the rules of seniority under which the men referred to have secured their seniority right, and the railroad companies have neither the legal nor moral right to deprive these men of those rights. By public utterance since the strike began the board has recognized and emphasized these rights, and to deny them now would, instead of upholding the authority of the labor board, overthrow its rules and discredit its authority.

"The chairman of the labor board at the time the strike was called made the following public statement:

"Upon one question the striking employes should not be deceived. Their leader has said that the strikers are no longer employes of the railways and they have thus automatically abandoned all the right they possess under their agreements and under the decisions of the Board, including their seniority. This is not the Board's action but it is their own.

"Many carriers are giving their former employes the opportunity to re-enter their service within a limited time. It must be understood now that men who remained in the service and those who are now entering it will have rights of seniority that the Board could not ignore.'"

What the Proposed Plan Means.

"It must be understood that any proposal that employees now on strike shall not be permitted to return to the service, without impairment to their seniority, is merely another way of suggesting that those men who took employment in this crisis in good faith, relying on the promises of the railroads to protect them in their positions, these promises being justified by the authoritative utterances of the labor board, and thus have made possible the continued operation of the railroads, shall now be sacrificed in favor of men now on strike who not only brought about the crisis, but by their own action and declaration are no longer employees of the railways under the jurisdiction of the United States railroad labor board or subject to the application of the transportation act.

"In addition to the necessity of upholding the labor board, and maintaining the pledges made by the railroads to the men now at work, there is the practical effect on the supervisory officers of a violation of the pledges that they were authorized to make. Their discouragement and demoralization would be far more disastrous than this or any other strike."

It Pays To Sell The Roosters

By conservative estimate the annual loss from bad eggs in Missouri is at least $5,000,000. And a large percentage of this loss could be prevented by the simple expedient of removing the roosters from summer flock.

Roosters eat considerable food during the summer and do not add to egg production. This puts them in the same class with the cull hens and they should be given the same treatment, according to T. S. Townley, extension professor of poultry husbandry of the University of Missouri.

Here are five safe rules which Professor Townsley gives for getting the most from the summer flocks:

1. Produce infertile eggs by removing the roosters from the flock in the summer time.
2. Provide clean nests and keep eggs clean.
3. Do not wash eggs.
4. Gather eggs twice daily during the summer to prevent them from being heated by the hen.
5. Keep them in a cool, dry place away from the flies.

MANUAL ARTS DEPT. HERE TO RANK WITH BIG SCHOOLS

New Equipment and Added Instructor Raise Standard—Much Practical Work

With the new equipment that has been added at the department of manual arts at the State Teachers College and with some more that is to be added before some of the furnishings for the new dormitory are completed, it will rank with the departments of the larger universities of the country, according to E. W. Glenn. In addition to the new aquipment that is being provided a new instructor, C. E. Partch, will take up work in the department with the beginning of the fall term. Heretofore the work has been carried on by Mr. Glenn with student assistants.

The department does much practical work and makes many useful things while it is giving the students the practice. Some of the furniture in the College building was made by the department and it built the summer cottages in the College park. The latest project and one of the biggest is that of making the dressers and study tables for the new dormitory.

WOUNDED MEN ARE URGED TO MAKE APPLICATIONS

Miss Betty Turner, Executive Secretary of Local Red Cross, Will Handle Them.

Former service men who have vocational handicap, due to their military service are urged to make application for vocational training by Miss Betty Turner, executive secretary of the Nodaway County Chapter of the American Red Cross. She has just returned from her vacation and is in the Red Cross office in the Michau building and is willing to help the former soldiers in making out their application.

Applications must be handed into the office soon, if the men expect to get their vocational training. A communication received by Miss Turner from the Southwestern Division office says:

"All applications for vocational training under the U. S. Veterans' Bureau must be received on or before December 16, 1922. Regardless of how worthy a case a man may be, if he fails to apply in some way before December 16, he will not be eligible for training."

Many of the former service men have confused the claims for compensation and the certificate of injury and for that reason Miss Turner gives the following information concerning these phases of Red Cross work, which has been received from division headquarters.

"Probably the recent publicity which has been given by the Veterans' Bureau to the importance of securing a Certificate of Injury before August 9, 1922, has been misunderstood. It is obvious that any disabled person who was discharged previous to August 9, 1921, according to the terms of the 'Sweet Bill,' has only until August 9, 1922 to secure a certificate of injury. It is still true, however, that applications for compensation may be filed at any time within five years after discharge."

"All applications for compensation must be received within five years from date of discharge, unless the man has a certificate of injury, in which case there is no limit on the time within which he may apply for compensation. The certificate of injury must be applied for within one year from date of separation from active service, or before August 9, 1922."
